

Accessory to a Trend

BY NIKKI DAVIS

With fall fashions ranging from the heavily embellished to the boldly architectural, accessorizing with just the right elements plays an even greater role in making or breaking an outfit.

So what's the best way to rock the latest trends while maintaining your own personal style? This season's eclecticism also applies to accessories, with an emphasis on the textured, the bold and the versatile.

Think animal print-inspired bags, statement jewelry and ankle boots, but "don't overdo it," warns Elizabeth Bean of Wardrobe Therapy. "Biker chic is back, but leather boots, a leather jacket and leather pants is a definite overkill."
